MUSIC
Music sensation TORI KELLY is bringing her "Unbreakable Tour" to Beantown! The singer and songwriter has built a diehard following through music contests, live appearances, self-released EPs, Vine freestyles and YouTube covers. In 2010, Kelly auditioned for the American Idol and was told by Simon Cowell that her voice was "annoying". Good thing she didn't listen to him then and the 22 years old Californian has now reached number two spot on the music charts with her debut album "Unbreakable Smile". She has also hit the road on a nationwide tour and will be performing live in 17 cities.
