COOL HUNTER GUIDE JUNE 25 - JULY 1

FUEL

SALOON is the perfect spot to round out the perfect night. Located smack dab in the middle of Davis Square, it can be one of the more difficult bars to pinpoint. With sprawling leather booths, dark ebony accents and a cocktail list that is worth keeping a secret, this borderline speakeasy perfectly encapsulates the 1920's prohibition vibe.

MUSIC

Berklee College of Music is putting on a one of a kind concert series located on Spectacle Island, one of the Boston Harbor Islands. Just a short fifteen-minute ferry ride away, you will find the most brilliant up and coming jazz musicians that are already making a name for themselves in the Boston music scene. This SUMMER CONCERT SERIES is hosting a duo called Moxie this coming Sunday, June 25. There will be beachside food, hiking, drinks, swimming and, of course, live music. If you are looking for a day-scape from the relentless concrete jungle, look no further.

BERKLEE SUMMER CONCERT SERIES AT SPECTACLE ISLAND

Spectacle Island
Boston
Monday 6/25 @ 1:00PM

Insidertip: In case you cannot stand the thought of coming back to the mainland so soon, Harpoon is hosting a pop up beer garden every Sunday starting a 5:30pm on the island immediately following the show.

DESIGN

Sunday mornings are for sleeping in, going for long walks, shopping and taking advantage of the occasional morning beverage. Your Sunday Funday is about to be brought to the next level by LEKKER HOME. Located in the South End, this modern home and furniture store is not your average Ikea. It has sleek, simplistic yet unique one of a kind pieces that can tie any room together. This coming Sunday they are pioneering a Wine and Design event that will take remodeling your new living room to an entirely new level. Lekker Home will be offering a variety of rosés along with an assortment of passed appetizers throughout the afternoon. I don't know about you, but I do all of my best shopping on rosé.
