

W INSIDER

COOL HUNTER GUIDE AUGUST 13 –AUGUST 19

FUEL

Delicious tiki inspired beverages ✓. Late night menu including anything from sushi to fried chicken ✓. Drinks that are casually served while on fire ✓. HOJOKO, a self-acclaimed Japanese Tavern is truly one-of-a-kind. Hojoko consistently reinvents themselves and pushes the boundaries.

HOJOKO
Fenway Area, Boston

Insidertip: Hojoko is the perfect post-game spot. Somehow, it has remained a majority locals-only hotspot. Only steps away from Fenway

INSIDER ACCESS TO WHAT'S NEW/NEXT IN BOSTON
Park is the ideal place to fuel up after the game. Life on @Whatevs break the low BOSTON HOTEL

MUSIC

STREETLIGHT MANIFESTO, the New Jersey ska-punk band delivers a brassy, upbeat brand of third wave ska. Complete with punk-styled melodies courtesy of vocalist Tomas Kalnoky -- the band made its debut in 2003 with Everything Goes Numb.

STREETLIGHT MANIFESTO
House of Blues, Boston
Sunday 8/13 @ 7:00PM

Insidertip: In October 2005, the band was robbed of nearly $80,000 worth of equipment and possessions from its van, only to suffer another robbery while on tour in Europe the very next month. Streetlight Manifesto ended 2005 by touring alongside the Tossers on the brief (and appropriately titled) Please Stop Robbing Us Tour.

FASHION

Located at 450 Harrison Ave, the SOWA VINTAGE MARKET is Boston's weekly destination for antiques, vintage, collectibles, art and many other one-of-a-kind curiosities. They Vintage Market is open every Sunday, year round, from 10am-4pm, and every Saturday between April 29-

October 29, from 11am-4pm, rain or shine.

SOWA VINTAGE MARKET
450 Harrison Ave, Boston
Sunday 8/13 10:00AM-4:30PM

Insidertip: SoWa is also well known for their weekly Farmer's Market. Featuring local produce, meats, and other food specialties, make sure to clear your weekend schedule.

W
BOSTON